

SOCIALIST LOSSES HERE ARE MADE UP IN OTHER SECTIONS

Party Lines in N. Y. Were Ignored as a Rebuke to Miller and Luskism.

Despite the virtual cutting in half of the Socialist vote in New York State, returns indicate that party has either held its own or made large gains in other sections of the country. There is scarcely an exception in this State to the general rule that the Socialists lost heavily. Even in Buffalo the candidate of that party polled only 7,000 votes.

Political observers, both in and out of the Socialist Party, attribute the general slump in New York and the indications of strength elsewhere as clinching the argument that the voters here this year disregarded party lines to express an emphatically as possible their protest against Millerism, Luskism and rural control of city affairs.

In Toledo, O., three Socialist Councilmen were elected, and the party's candidate for Mayor ran second, only 5,000 behind the winner. In Terre Haute, Ind., the home of Eugene V. Debs, imprisoned leader of the party, the vote was increased 100 per cent. In Jacksonville, an important mining town nearby, a Socialist Mayor and three Councilmen were elected.

The Socialists carried six of the twelve wards in Dayton, but were defeated by from 1,500 to 4,000 votes for their four city-wide candidates. This represents a greatly increased strength. The Socialists elected their first Municipal Court Judge at Piqua, O., and ran second in both Blaineville, Pa., and in the 11th Ward of Camden, N. J. Socialist returns are slower than usual this year, but the reports so far received indicate a large vote outside New York State.

POLICE STATION CELEBRATION LURES SIGHTSEERS TO DANCE

Drawn by Lights and Music Strangers From Winsted Intrude on Cops' Greenwich Village Merry Making.

Sounds of revelry floated from the Mercer Street Police Station early today. The building, once an old Greenwich Village mansion, has been repainted and renovated, and for the first time has electric lights. There has not been time to have the usual police symbols painted on the green lamps out in front, so they are just plain green lamps.

Recently there was a robbery in the neighborhood and several phonographs were taken. Last night detectives of the station recovered two of the largest and some of the jazz records. So in celebration of the new paint and new lights of what used to be the department's House of Correction, where bad cops were sent for discipline, all the lights were turned on and the phonographs were kept going full blast, furnishing jazz music.

About 3.30 this morning an automobile chugged up to the door and a gay party of men and women skipped up the steps and made for the back room, whence came the music.

"What is it?" asked Lieut. Collier, looking up from the blotter.

"Why, we just dropped in for a bite to eat and a dance or two," said one of the girls.

"But you can't do that here, you know," Collier told them. "This is a police station."

"O—h—why, we thought it was the Green Lantern Inn or something like that," explained one of the girls. "We came down from Winsted, Conn., for Armistice Day, and thought we'd make a tour of Greenwich Village."

After they had gone Lieut. Collier shut off the lights and music. He didn't want to attract any more visitors.

CHANGES IN JERSEY GUARD.

TRENTON, Nov. 11.—Gov. Edwards, as Commander in Chief of the National Guard of New Jersey, has issued an order redesignating and reorganizing units of the infantry. The 114th Infantry was threatened with disruption upon the resignation some time ago of about two score of its officers, following the election of Gen. Horace S. Marden of Oceanic, wealthy militiaman, as Commander of the infantry brigade over a war veteran at the Governor's reported dictation.

The most important change is the transfer of the headquarters of the 114th Infantry and the station of the Regimental Commander, Field and Staff, from Camden to Paterson.

DEFENSE DEPENDS ON DYING WOMAN TO FREE ARBUCKLE

Attorney Refers to Victim's Statement That "Fatty" Did Not Hurt Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—A sworn statement by George Glennon, house detective of the Hotel St. Francis, which purports to clear Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle of criminal responsibility for the death of Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, is in the hands of District Attorney Matthew P. Brady, according to Gavan McNab, chief counsel for Arbuckle.

Mr. Brady admitted having taken a statement from Glennon several weeks ago, but said that he had so many other matters to attend to that he did not remember the nature of its contents.

The statement, as of the question and answer type, according to the defense. The detective asked the girl if the hotel where she sustained her injuries was responsible for her hurts in any way and she replied "no."

"Did Mr. Arbuckle hurt you?" she was asked by Glennon, according to the defense statement.

"No."

"Then who hurt you?" "I do not know. I may have been hurt by falling off the bed," she replied, according to Arbuckle's counsel. McNab said he was advised that the statement was made in the girl's room at the St. Francis immediately after the party in Arbuckle's rooms there in which she was alleged to have received her fatal injuries, and that she was "suffering no pain and had a perfectly clear head" when she made it.

Arbuckle is to go to trial on Monday on a charge of manslaughter growing out of Miss Rappe's death.

ALL THE SIGNS

(From the Birmingham Age-Herald.) "Would you consider Jesseby an opportunist?"

"I'm sure he's one."

"Quite positive, eh?"

"Yes, I've seen him follow a golf crank to the links, hoping he would get a chance to talk business with him."

Bang! Bang!

Christmas Toy World Opens Saturday at WANAMAKER'S

Hammers, saws, painters, artists, electricians, carpenters, costumers—all have been working for weeks and months. Such a hustle and bustle! Now it is finished. The great day is here. The curtain goes up.

Aladdin!

And the Wonderful Lamp

This is the Christmas pantomime

Greater than any other Christmas mechanical pantomime and equaled in interest only by the famous Drury Lane pantomimes in London which depict and glorify the world's fairy tales.

It fills the big Rotunda

In the New Building

It stretches from the third to the sixth gallery.

And it's alive! Yes, alive with electricity and motion and color and thrills.

The Good Geni is there!

The Evil Magician is there!

The Beautiful Princess is there!

And best of all, Aladdin is there with his Wonderful Lamp!

See what Aladdin sees!

Children must be accompanied by parents or guardians—but the older folk will want to come as well as the youngsters. It is a chance for all of us to grow young again!

An Arabian Night's Pageant

At 10.30 A. M. Saturday will formally open the Christmas Toy World and the Aladdin Pantomime—music, banners, floats, beautiful princesses, funny pages, elegant court ladies, our old friend Sinbad the Sailor, Ali Baba and the others—a glittering pageant that seems to have just stepped out of a fairy book.

And Santa Claus, Himself!

will be on his beautiful Throne to receive the children and hear their story. Everybody come! And come early!
